

7 Reasons To Have an EpiPen® on Hand

10.8%

of US adults (>26 million) have at least one food allergy.

1997

2008

Food allergies among children in the US increased by 50% between 1997 and 2011.

Every 3 minutes

in the US, a food allergy reaction sends someone to the ER.

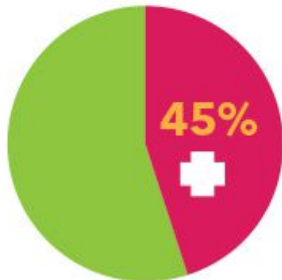

1997

2008

The prevalence of peanut or tree nut allergy appears to have more than tripled in U.S. children between 1997 and 2008.

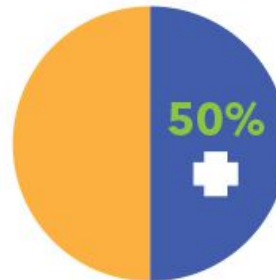

Up to 45%

of adults with peanut allergies carry expired EpiPens®. Having access to a valid dated auto-injector could save someone's life.

Anaphylaxis needs to be treated within minutes to drastically reduce the risk of a fatality.

Close to 50% of FATAL anaphylactic reactions occur in public places.

All references available upon request.

thrivemeetings.com